Dawes Arboretum - Ohio 13, three miles north of I-70.

Fall Plant Sale - Saturday, October 4, 10 a.m. - 2 p.m. Our Horticulturists say there is still time to put plants out for next spring's bloom! We will have recommended perennials and some woody plants (Dawes Favorites). If you missed spring Plant Sale, here's another chance to buy some great plants. It's at the Visitors Center area.

Hike the Trail Less Traveled- Saturday, October 11, 9:30 - 11:30 a.m. Are you curious about Arboretum East but have never ventured there? Now is the perfect time to get some exercise and enjoy the fall colors before settling onto the couch to watch football. Take a tour of the East Side trails with an Interpretive Educator. Highlights include an Indian Mound, pond, well-established trees, and of course, the access tunnel, $5/members free, reservation required, meet at the Visitors Center Deck.

New Member Day- Saturday, October 11, 10 a.m. - noon. If you are new to our circle of friends or a long-time supporter, this is a great time to come see all of our exciting changes. Join Luke Messinger, Executive Director, for a presentation over coffee and donuts on the current projects and future plans of The Arboretum. Mike Ecker, Director of Horticulture, will delight you with a wagon tour highlighting the garden and collection areas. The wagon will make a stop at the Daweswood House where David Vermilion, Historian, will enlighten everyone with tidbits of Dawes family trivia, Free, reservation required, FOD only, meet at the Visitors Center and Daweswood House.

Night Hike- Friday, October 17, 7 - 9 p.m. Experience The Arboretum at night! Kids and adults are welcome to attend the hike through collections, woodlands and trails on one of our most popular programs, Free, meet at the Visitors Center Deck.

Walking Tour of the North End- Saturday, October 18, 10 - 11:30 a.m. Explore and enjoy the fall beauty of the original grounds and learn about the Dawes family, events that led to the purchase of the property, the tradition of tree dedications and other historical aspects of The Dawes Arboretum. See and learn the story behind the Dawes Memorial, former one-room Schoolhouse, Daweswood House, former Blacksmith Shop, Smokehouse and Zand Education Center. Walking distance is about 1.5 miles, $5/$3 members, reservation required, meet at the History Center.

Fossils Rock!- Saturday, October 25, 9 a.m. - 5 p.m. This field trip is for all rock-hounds! Visit the oldest rock formation in southwestern Ohio. Collect fossils of oceanic organisms and learn about how they lived—and who ate who! Bring your own brown-bagged lunch (we'll have coolers to keep them), $40/$25 members, reservation required. meet at the Visitors Center Deck.

The grounds are open from dawn to dusk. The Visitors Center is open 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Saturday, and from 1 to 5 p.m. Sundays and holidays. Call 740-323-2355 or 800-44-DAWES for information or visit www.dawesarb.org.
